11.4.2 The banking account shall be operated upon by at least two of three persons approved by the Management Committee.

11.5 Audit

11.5.1 Auditors shall be appointed by SANCOLD annually.

11.5.2 The books and accounts of SANCOLD shall be audited for the end of each financial year on 31 December and a report on the audit shall be submitted to the Management Committee before 31 May of the following year.

11.5.3 After endorsement, copies of the financial statements shall be made available for inspection to all members of SANCOLD as well as to the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Services.
11.6 General

11.6.1 Membership fees.

11.6.1.1 The Management Committee reserves the sole right to determine the amount of membership fees in respect of each member individually.

11.6.1.2 The basis of the fee structure shall be set according to the benefit that will be derived by a specific member from SANCOLD membership.

11.6.1.3 In the case of owners and operators, the number, hazard potential and inherent risk of the dams owned or operated may be taken into account.

11.6.2 No member may commit SANCOLD to expenditure without the prior approval of the Management Committee.

11.6.3 The Management Committee may delegate certain decisions to a quorum of the Executive Committee

12. Annual Report

12.1 The Chairperson shall submit an annual report on the activities of SANCOLD for approval by the Management Committee at the end of each year.

12.2 A copy of such approved annual report shall be made available to all members of SANCOLD on request.

13. SANCOLD - a Universitas

13.1 SANCOLD is a universitas distinct from its members.

13.2 Unless the members of SANCOLD expressly agree thereto in writing, they shall not as members be liable for any debts incurred by or on behalf of SANCOLD.

13.3 The liability of members shall be limited to the payment of their membership fees when they are due and payable.
14. Amendments to this Constitution

14.1 Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary and shall carry the signatures of not less than three members of the Management Committee.

14.2 The Secretary shall refer such proposed amendments to all members of the Management Committee at least one calendar month before the following meeting of the Management Committee.

14.3 At such meeting of the Management Committee, the proposed amendment shall be discussed and voted upon. If carried by at least a two-thirds majority of the total number of Management Committee members, it shall be adopted.

14.4 A copy of the amended Constitution shall be made available to all SANCOLD members as well as to the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Services by the Secretary.

15. The Schedules

15.1 The Management Committee shall have the powers to enact, amend and repeal Schedules to this Constitution, provided that Schedule 2 is excluded from this provision.

15.2 The Schedules must be consistent with the provisions of this Constitution. In the event of a conflict between the Schedules and the Constitution, the Constitution shall prevail.

15.3 Proposed enactments, amendments or repeals of Schedules shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary and shall carry the signatures of not less than two members of the Management Committee. If carried by at least a majority of the total number of Management Committee members, it shall be adopted.

15.4 The procedures as described in clauses 14.2 and 14.4 are similarly applicable to the enactment, amendment and repeal of Schedules.

16. Language

The working language of SANCOLD shall be English.
17. Disciplinary

17.1 A Disciplinary Committee of the Management Committee shall consist of the Chairperson and three other members co-opted by the Chairperson from the Management Committee, provided that the expert services of anyone outside the Management Committee or SANCOLD may be engaged for any particular case.

17.2 The Disciplinary Committee has the powers to suspend or terminate the membership of any member, where that member -

17.2.1 brings SANCOLD into serious disrepute;

17.2.2 unreasonably and repeatedly causes serious disruption of SANCOLD meetings;

17.2.3 ceases to comply with the requirements for membership as provided for in clause 6;

17.2.4 failed to pay his / her membership fees in full within the periods described in clauses 6.7 and 6.8; or

17.2.5 commits a criminal offence involving financial prejudice to SANCOLD.

17.3 Where disciplinary action is contemplated by SANCOLD, the Secretary must inform the member involved in writing -

17.3.1 of the alleged facts held against him / her; and

17.3.2 that such member has the opportunity to answer on the allegations against him / her within thirty days after receipt of the Secretary’s notice, either in writing or in person or both.

17.4 After the expiry of thirty days as mentioned in clause 17.3.2, the matter shall be considered and finally decided upon by the Disciplinary Committee.

17.5 The member involved shall be notified in writing of the decision of the disciplinary committee together with reasons by the Secretary as soon as possible.
18. Conflict Resolution

18.1 Where a serious conflict arises between SANCOLD and any of its members which cannot be solved by dialogue between the parties, any of the parties may refer the matter for arbitration.

18.2 Such arbitration shall be conducted in terms of the Arbitration Act, 1965 (Act No 42 of 1965) and through the offices of the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa.

19. Archive

19.1 The Secretary shall handle all records and documents not regularly in use, as directed by the Management Committee.

19.2 The Treasurer shall keep all financial records for a minimum period of five years before they may be disposed of.

20. Transitional Provisions

20.1 The provisions of this Constitution replace all provisions of earlier editions of SANCOLD constitutions or of any similar organisation and as such shall remain in force until amended or repealed.

20.2 The provisions of this Constitution shall come into force and effect upon completion of the list of signatures of the signatories to this Constitution, a list of which is contained in Schedule 2, comprising at least two-thirds of the present members of SANCOLD.

20.3 In Schedule 2 the following must appear in respect of each signatory:

20.3.1 signature;

20.3.2 name;

20.3.3 address for service of documents; and

20.3.4 relationship with SASICOLD as well as SANCOLD both as contemplated in their 1969 constitution as amended.

20.4 All signatories to this Constitution automatically become SANCOLD members, provided that they also qualify for membership in terms of clause 6.
21. Disestablishment

21.1 SANCOLD can only be disestablished by a special meeting of the Management Committee specifically arranged to consider such disestablishment.

21.2 SANCOLD may only be disestablished if at least two-thirds of the total membership of the Management Committee supports the proposal in a closed ballot.

21.3 If the disestablishment is approved, the remaining assets and liabilities of SANCOLD must be transferred to one or more of the following organisations:

21.3.1 a similar public benefit organisation approved by the Commissioner of the South African Revenue Services;

21.3.2 an organisation established by law as envisaged in section 10(1)(cA)(i) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No 58 of 1962) which carries on as an approved public benefit organisation;

21.3.3 an appropriate department or administration of the national, provincial or local sphere of the South African Government.
SCHEDULE 1

ELECTION PROCEDURES

1.1. Within sixty days after the list of signatures of the signatories to this Constitution is completed, a special meeting of the signatory members shall be held for the specific purpose of the election of an interim Management Committee.

1.2. Forty percent of the total number of signatory members shall constitute a quorum.

1.3. The meeting shall immediately after commencement, elect a person from its members to preside at that meeting which person may request one or more members to assist him/her. This person shall have a normal vote as well as a casting vote in case of an equal vote.

1.4. All matters at this meeting shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the signatory members present.

1.5. The initial term of office of the elected members shall be suitably staggered in order to ensure continuity.

1.6. The provisions of items 2.6, 2.8 and 2.9 hereunder, shall equally be applicable to this election process.

2.1. A meeting of SANCOLD members shall be convened every year specifically for reporting back to the membership and for the election of new Management Committee members after the expiry of their terms of office in the event that this electoral procedure has been adopted by the Management Committee for the forthcoming election.

2.2. The Secretary shall give at least thirty days written notice of such meeting.
2.3 The present Chairperson shall preside at the meeting and shall have a normal vote. In case of an equal vote the Chairperson shall additionally have a casting vote. The Chairperson may be assisted by as many members as he/she requires.

2.4 Should the Chairperson be absent, the vice-Chairperson shall preside. In the absence of both, the meeting shall elect its own presiding member for that meeting.

2.5 Thirty percent of the total number of voting members shall constitute a quorum. No quorum requirements are required for electronic/postal voting as the full membership may participate.

2.6 All voting shall be done by closed ballot or by electronic/postal voting as decided annually by the Management Committee.

2.7 All matters shall be decided by a majority of votes.

2.8 Nominations for vacant positions are to be received in writing from any of the Groups described in clause 6.3 after which election shall take place. A nomination shall only be valid once accepted in writing by the nominee.

2.9 The interim Management Committee shall function as a full Management Committee and expand as the rest of the members are appointed and co-opted as contemplated in clause 7.1, finally to constitute a complete Management Committee. The appointment and co-opting process shall be completed within one year.
